

Anita Coulton

Anita started fly fishing more than 20 years ago on PA streams with her father. After attending the Orvis Fly Fishing School her addiction was fully entrenched. Though trout are her passion, she's skilled fishing for anything that swims in both fresh and saltwater.

Anita is a well known and respected competitive angler on the top ranked Team Freestone. She has competed alongside both Team USA and World Team members, and has multiple top 10 finishes. Some of her highlights and accomplishments include:

*2014 Spring Creek Masters 1st place Team

*2014 Deep Freeze, Chittenango NY: 2nd place Individual

*2014 CNY Classic 2nd place Team

*2010 AuSable Two Fly First Place winner

She is also a graduate of the Reel Women Guide School in Montana.

Anita shares her passion with organizations like the US Youth Fly Fishing team, and Casting for Recovery.

When not on the water, Anita works in a physical therapy outpatient clinic where she helps patients get back to living the life they wish to. Anita's also an expert in the Martial Arts, recently earning a black belt in karate. She's an excellent teacher of all ages and skill levels who loves to hit the water, catch some fish, and have some fun!
